Conference: New challenges of an online and face-to-face work model

Award of the 9th Barcelona Prize for Innovative Business in Organisation and Uses of Time

Goal

The conference is set in the framework of the Barcelona Time Pact, a city agreement for organising the healthiest and most egalitarian and efficient organisation of time, promoted by Barcelona City Council in conjunction with the city's social and economic organisations.

The conference, which includes the awards ceremony for the 9th Barcelona Prize for Innovative Business in Organisation and Uses of Time, puts the emphasis on an online and face-to-face work model in the digital era for businesses, aspects which were already important but are now taking on a special significance in times of COVID-19.
